

Introduction to Web Technologies Coursework Proposal

Student Name:	Nutan Raj Panta
Student ID No:	np03a190030

Proposed Name of Web Site

Real Homes(realhomes.com)

Description of the Web Site

This website sets out our scenario to find a suitable buyer for your property and also suitable seller for your budget with the minimum of fuss, as quickly as possible and at the highest realistic price in today's market. This includes property photography, property details, postal mailing all our relevant house hunters, handling all viewings, offers, price negotiations and once a price has been agreed with a buyer, pushing the sale through to completion with the conveyancing solicitors.
--

Pages of your Web Site

Page Name	Description
Index.html	In this page details about the property can be filtered and featured properties are listed with their pictures and their respective prices to buy including the ones which are kept for rent and also you can submit your property to sell.
About.html	In this page you can find the most frequently asked questions about our website.
Property.html	In this page you can find the list of properties you want to buy with necessary details about the property.
Agents.html	In this page are the list of agents with details about the agent with their phone number and email along with their details.
Blog.html	In this page you can see the latest blog in the real estate business along with the blog about new properties posted by real homes.
Contact.html	In this page you can see the location of our office and contact us through email through message so we can solve your query.